- A. On November 16th Hasan DOSTI proposed to KUPI that the Executive Committee should have two presidents one for political affairs and one for military affairs.
- B. He suggested that when the Committee sat to discuss political affairs DOSTI should be president and when a decision was made on military affairs it should be under presidency of Abas KUPI.
- C. DOSTI emphasized that he was not repeat not speaking as Chairman of Balli Kombetar party but as private individual. KUPI did not repeat not express his views.
- D. On November 17th a full meeting of the Committee was held with DOSTI present. On this occasion KUPI put forward DOSTI's suggestion but without specifically naming himself as military president of Committee.
- E. The BK did not turn this proposal down but suggested further meeting of Executive Committee today after they had consulted with Committee of the BK party.
- F. A.K. has admitted to ☐ ☐ and ASL(a) that this solution would be acceptable to him provided he was military president.

- G. Greater danger is that it will be violently opposed by ALBERT as giving KUPI too great a control on coming operations in Albania.
- H. Two points are worth noting
- (a) the BK and legitimatists are now conferring amicably together instead of passing their proposals through [] and ASL knowing
 - (b) SAID is playing no part in these negotiations and it is assumed by both sides that he will agree with what the others decide.
